

Write Winning Grant Proposals

Attendees may choose:

Thursday, September 24 or Friday, September 25*

Designed for UC Davis faculty and staff who have had some exposure to writing grant applications, this widely acclaimed seminar addresses both practical and conceptual aspects important to proposal-writing success.

Topics covered include:

- idea development
- maximizing programmatic relevance to target agency
- selecting the correct grant mechanism
- using the review process to inform writing
- how to write for reviewers
- strategies for writing proposal sections and examples

While the 9/24 presentation will use primarily NSF examples, and the 9/25 presentation will use primarily NIH examples, researchers preparing a grant for any sponsor will find the information useful.*

Space is limited. Preferential registration will be given to faculty and staff.

Location: UC Davis Memorial Union II

Registration Fee: $75

(includes a copy of
The Grant Application Writer's Workbook)

Schedule:

8:00 a.m.

check-in

8:30 a.m.

seminar begins

12:00-1:00 p.m.

break for lunch

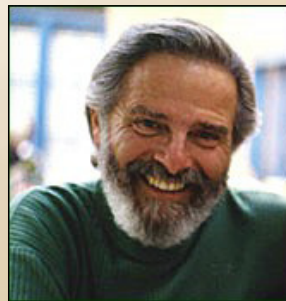

(we suggest the Coffee House)

5:00 p.m.

seminar ends

(light refreshments provided throughout)

Stephen W. Russell, DVM, PhD, co-founder and managing member of Grant Writers' Seminars and Workshops, LLC, was continuously funded for nearly 30 years by NIH, USDA, American Cancer Society, foundations, and industry.

Dr. Russell earned his DVM and PhD in comparative pathology at UC Davis and was a postdoctoral research fellow at the Scripps Research Institute. He is a member of multiple national review and advisory groups, and he has received awards for teaching excellence.

To register, email: bgruber@ucdavis.edu