Award Process

Negotiating and Executing Award Agreements

Award Process Overview

Notice of Award

A Notice of Award (NOA) is a notification UC Davis receives from a sponsor that a proposal has been selected to receive an award.

The NOA often arrives in the form of a draft award agreement.

If you or the PI receive an NOA from a sponsor forward it by email to awards@ucdavis.edu.

- Include the:
 - Cayuse SP Project #
 - Lead PI's name.

DO NOT upload the NOA into Cayuse SP.

Award Mechanisms Processed by SPO

SPO processes:

- Grants
- Contracts
- Cooperative agreements
- Subawards
- Clinical trial contracts NOT funded entirely by industry (for-profit entities)

SPO does not process:

- Clinical trial contracts funded entirely by industry
 - Processed by the UCDH Clinical Trials Contracts Office
- Gifts
 - Processed by Advancement Services in Development and Alumni Relations (DEVAR)
 - Gifts generally have no deliverables other than stewardship progress reports (what was done/is being done with the money)
 - However, to determine whether a gift is in fact a gift often requires analysis
 - Review the award agreement as a whole
 - Do not base decisions upon the presence or absence of a single characteristic or criterion
 - Contact SPO at awards@ucdavis.edu for assistance.

SPO Review: Award Terms and Conditions

Your SPO awards analyst will review award documents to ensure the terms and conditions are acceptable to the University of California and to UC Davis.

UC/UCD Policies and Regulations

1. Integrity in research
2. Appropriateness of the activity to the University
3. Protection of human and animal subjects and the environment
4. Use of University facilities
5. Adherence to personnel policies
6. Intellectual property
7. Conflicts of interest
8. Recovery of full costs, direct and indirect (F&A)
9. Liability insurance and indemnification

Principles Regarding Rights to Future Research Results in University Agreements with External Parties

- A. Open dissemination of research results and information
- B. Commitment to students
- C. Accessibility for [future] research purposes
- D. Public benefit
- E. Informed participation
- F. Legal integrity and consistency
- G. Fair consideration for university research results
- H. Objective decision-making

Activity 1: Award Terms and Conditions

Question:

A sponsor clearly allows publications but then includes a provision under Confidentiality that states “all information in connection with the scope of work and this agreement is considered confidential.”

Does this condition conflict with any of the 8 principles to the right?

Yes, this condition conflicts with the following principles:

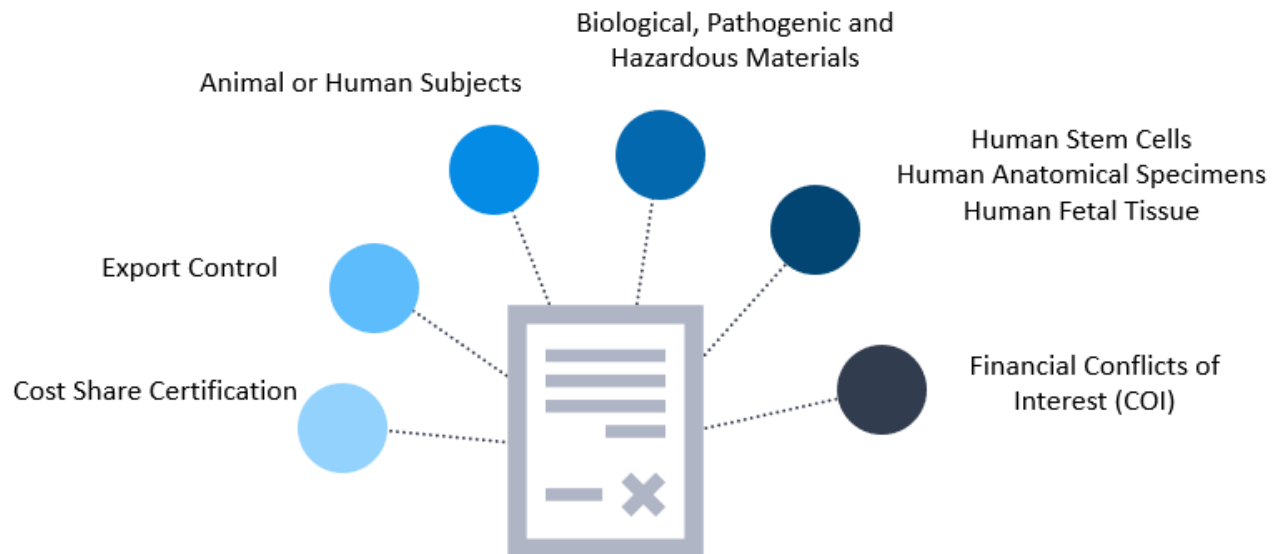

- Open dissemination of research results and information
- Accessibility for [future] research purposes
- Public benefit

It also conflicts with university policy, state policy, and the California Public Records Act (CPRA)

SPO Review: Compliance Items

SPO will determine what compliance items are required and ensure receipt of those required items.

- Compliance requirements vary by sponsor, program and scope of the project

SPO Review: Financial Conflicts of Interest (COI)

PROPOSAL STAGE

Form 800

- Awards from the NSF, CIRM and UCOP Special Programs
- Non-PHS awards that involve human subjects

PHS COI

- Awards from any PHS agency or other sponsor that has adopted the PHS regulations
- This is an annual requirement. An online training is also required every 4 years

AWARD STAGE

Form 700-U (State of California requirement)

- Awards from non-governmental sources not on the exempt list
- Signed at award acceptance (no more than 30 days before award acceptance)

Statement of Economic Interests Supplemental Form

- Required for positive disclosures
- Required before award can be released

- File disclosures at <https://or-forms.ucdavis.edu/>
- Investigator must initiate and submit
 - Can establish one admin contact
 - Do not list the SPO analyst as the admin contact
- Need help? Contact or_coi@ucdavis.edu

SPO Review: After-the-Fact (ATF) Awards

An “After-the-Fact” (ATF) award, which is an award received without a proposal having been previously reviewed by SPO, will require these proposal stage items be provided:

Cayuse SP Internal Processing Form (IPF)

Fully completed and routed IPF certified by the PI and co-PIs and authorized by the unit lead(s).

Budget spreadsheet and budget justification

SPO strongly encourages providing both even if not required by sponsor.

Final Scope of Work

Description of project activities.

PI Concurrence

Your SPO awards analyst will also ask the PI to verify whether they concur with the terms and conditions of the agreement.

Award Agreement: Thoroughly read the award agreement to identify problematic language

Scope of Work: Ensure the scope of work in the agreement is accurate

Deliverables: Ensure the deliverables are acceptable

Inform SPO: Let your SPO Award Analyst know of any problematic items

Items to consider:

Are the restrictions acceptable?

- Allowable vs. Unallowable Costs
- Anticipated vs. Obligated Funding
- Allowed/Un-Allowed Revisions
- Prior Approval Requirements

Check the:

- Spending Start and End Dates

Are deadlines/terms acceptable?

- Invoices
- Reports
- Milestones
- Publications

Activity 2: Identify Important Award Information

Recommended future year total cost support, subject to the availability of funds and satisfactory progress of the project

- The Notice of Award (NOA) is committing funds for one budget period (of a multi-year project). (T/F)
True. The key is the “Budget Period,” which defines how much is being committed by the award.
- The NIH Award # is:
 - R21EB018750-01A1
 - R21EB018750
 - Not provided
- The committed award amount is $174,066. (T/F)
True
- The funds for Year 2 are committed. (T/F)
False. Again, the key is the “Budget Period.”

Negotiations

Your assigned SPO awards analyst is the primary negotiator with the sponsor, and will negotiate terms and conditions that:

- Violate university policy, regulations or principles
- Researchers find objectionable
- Would put UC activities in conflict with California or federal law
- Would negatively impact or limit other UC research programs
- Lack legal integrity

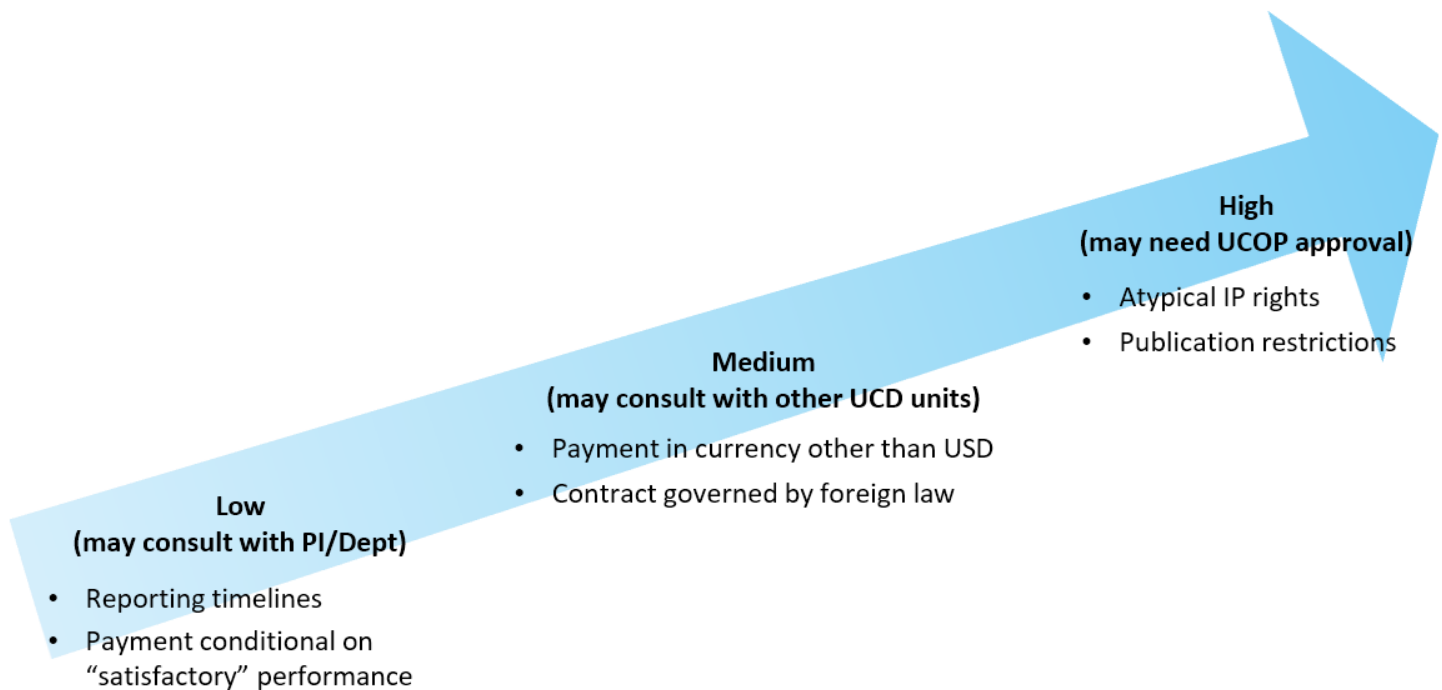

Some terms acceptable to the PI but generally unacceptable to UC Davis may be accepted by PI signature of an Informed Participation Agreement (IPA).

- Your SPO awards analyst will send the form to the PI for signature

SPO will keep the PI and department informed of negotiation progress.

- You can also check Cayuse SP for status updates
- Contact your SPO analyst for details not in Cayuse SP

Examples of agreement terms that require negotiation:

PI Responsibilities

Once an award agreement is signed, the Lead PI is responsible for the following:

After Award Execution

After SPO fully-executes an award, the PI and department will work with Contracts and Grants Accounting (CGA) to establish the account for fund distribution.

SPO:

- Changes the Cayuse SP award status from Pending to Active
- Makes the final (signed) award available in Cayuse SP to the PI, department contact and CGA

CGA:

- Notified the following business day of all newly Active awards in Cayuse SP
- Works with the PI/department contact on account set-up and fund distribution

PI/Dept:

- Notifies others of the award execution as needed, such as project personnel, payroll, etc.

Checkpoint 1 of 2: SPO Review

Which, if any, of the following items does SPO review?

- 1 Restrictions on publication in scientific journals
- 2 F&A rate
- 3 Intellectual Property ownership
- 4 Approved protocols for human and animal participants

SPO reviews ALL these items, and more.

Checkpoint 2 of 2: Terms/Conditions

Which, if any, of the terms/conditions below might be problematic if included in an award agreement?

1. All articles must be reviewed and approved by the Sponsor before publication.
2. Year two funding is contingent upon the submission of an annual progress report.
3. Unspent funds must be returned at the end of the project period.
4. All articles must be reviewed (but not approved) by the Sponsor before publication.

Answer:

- 1. All articles must be reviewed and approved by the Sponsor before publication.

The issue is with sponsor approval.

To protect open dissemination of research results and information, a sponsor cannot hold approval over articles before publication.

Advance Accounts

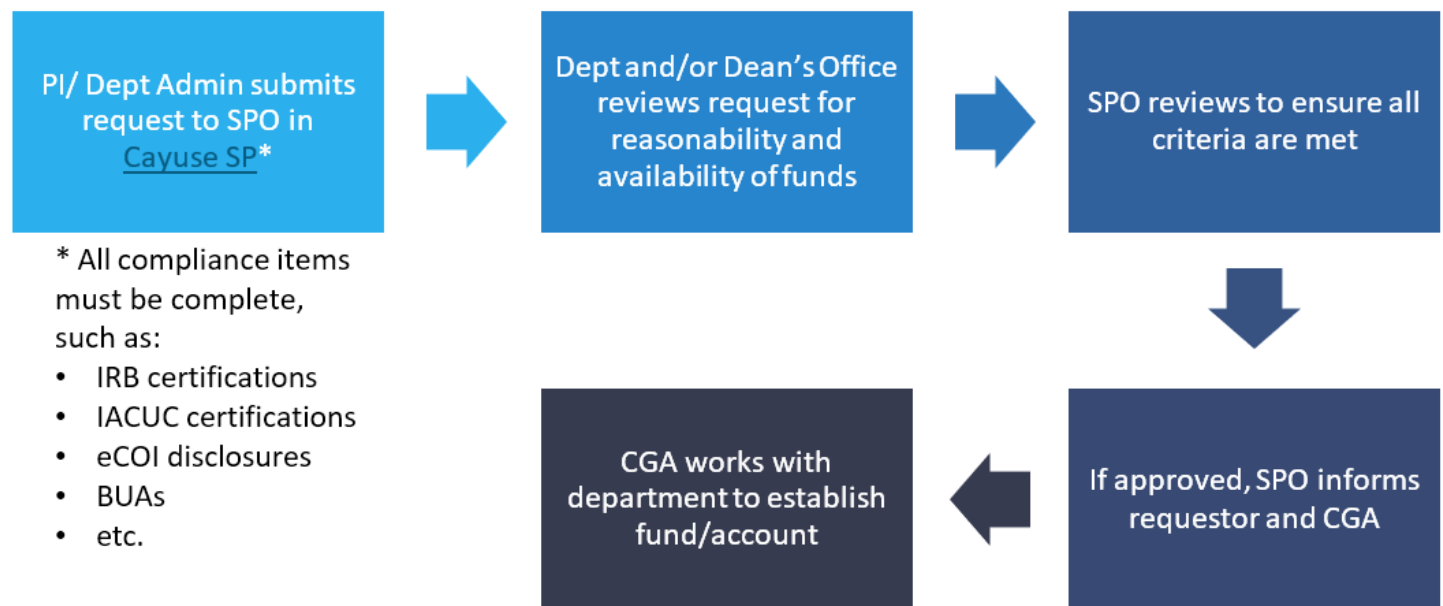

Requesting pre-award spending

Advance Account/Pre-Award Spending Criteria

Though NOT encouraged, pre-award spending is sometimes allowed by sponsors and appropriate. Requests must meet the following criteria:

- Compelling Reason
- Committed Award
- Allowed by Sponsor
- Appropriate Expenditures
- Appropriate Dates
- Available Funds

Advance Account Process

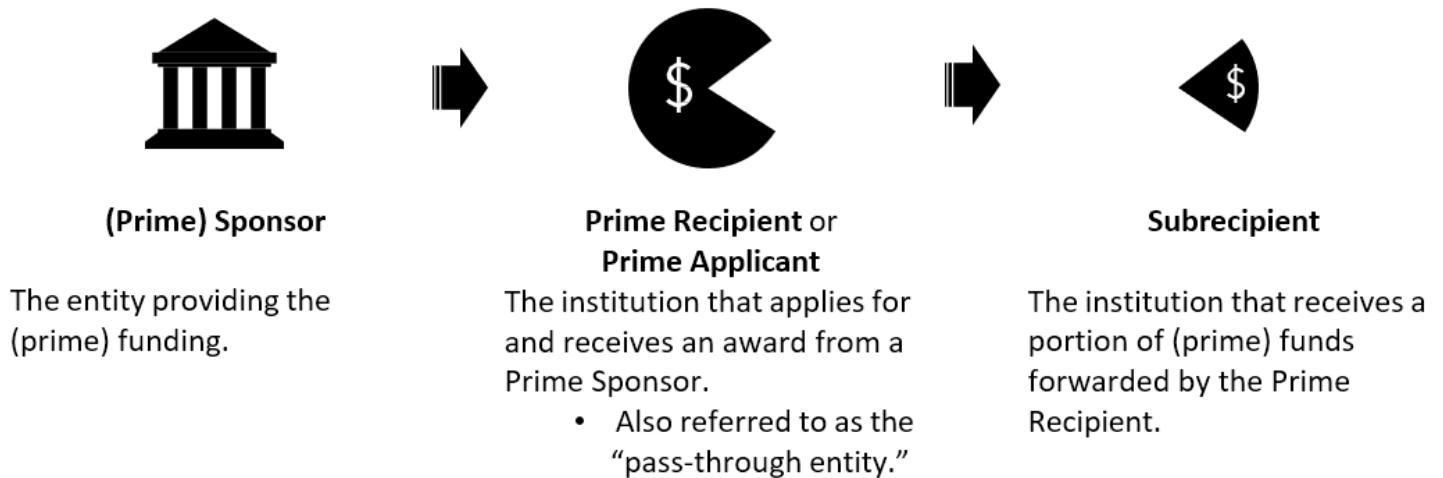

To Request an Advance Account

1. Complete the Advance Account Request Form accessed from the IPF in Cayuse SP.
 - It's found by clicking the Advance Account tab on the Proposal Routing Status screen.
 - Provide:
 - Compelling justification for the request ("Description of Assurances of Funding")
 - Sponsor contact info
 - Requested advance amount requested
 - Alternate source of funds to be charged if the award is not finalized
2. Upload required documents
 - Click on the paperclip tab to upload evidence of firm commitment from the sponsor.

Outgoing Subawards

Key Terms

More on subawards in these SPO classes:

- Processing Subawards (Cayuse) (instructor-led training over Zoom or eCourse)
- Subawards Lab (instructor-led training over Zoom only)

Outgoing Subawards

There are three flavors of subaward. In this awards-based training, we will focus on the third:

1. Incoming subaward: Another institution (prime recipient) forwards a portion of sponsor funds to UC Davis (subrecipient).
 - Incoming subawards are processed by the SPO awards team the same as incoming awards.
2. Outgoing proposal with subaward: UC Davis (prime applicant) applies for funding from a sponsor that includes a subrecipient institution in the application.
 - These outgoing proposals are processed by the SPO proposals team.
3. Outgoing subaward: UC Davis (prime recipient) forwards a portion of funds awarded by a sponsor to another subrecipient institution.
 - These outgoing subawards are processed by the SPO subawards team.

Outgoing Subawards

Outgoing subawards do not happen automatically, even when the subrecipient has been included in the proposal.

- Email the subaward request to subawards@ucdavis.edu AFTER the prime award is executed.

Activity: PI Change

Professor McGonagall in the Department of Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering, informs you she is about to go on sabbatical and in her absence, Co-PI Professor Plum in the same department will assume the role of PI on a research project funded by USDA.

Following links in the award agreement, you determine that USDA's prior approval is required.

Which action below best describes next steps?

A. Write the USDA Grant Manager to request prior approval.

B. Send an email with details about the PI change to awards@ucdavis that requests they submit a prior approval request to the USDA.

C. Route an IPF in Cayuse SP (Proposal Type: Prior Approval) that amends the original IPF.

Answer:

Progress Reports

PIs are responsible for determining, preparing & submitting required reports

Read sponsor guidelines to determine:

- Reports required
- Report deadlines
- Required format and submission methods

Not submitting a report on time may cause a sponsor to withhold funding to the PI or even all future funding to the university.

Ensure needed personnel have profiles in the appropriate report submission system (i.e., eRA Commons, Research.gov)

- Registration in new systems can take time. Plan ahead.
- Contact SPOeRAHelp@ucdavis.edu for system access issues.

Some reports must be approved and/or submitted by SPO.

- If the sponsor's system requires you to select an analyst in SPO to approve/submit the progress report, you can select Denise Ehlen and use the email address awards@ucdavis.edu.

Write awards@ucdavis.edu with any questions.

NIH RPPR Submissions

- Submit Research Performance Progress Reports (RPPRs) through eRA Commons:
 - See Commons Status tab
 - Required report components will be indicated
- The Project Director (PD)/PI or their delegate initiates and submits RPPRs
 - For multi-PD/PI grants, this is the Contact PD/PI
- NIH RPPR Instruction Guide

Routing to SO and/or AO

Usually, a PI can handle NIH RPPR processes without SPO.

If, however, they need to route it to a Signing Official (SO), follow these steps:

- ✗ Do not leave the default analyst
- ✓ Annual and Interim reports:
 - Select your SPO Award Analyst as the Signing Official
- ✓ Final (closeout) report:

U.S. Department of Health & Human Services

- Final
 - Part of closeout

 - Plans for the next year

- Select closeout analyst Alexa Rubio (closeouts@ucdavis.edu) as the Signing Official

If you need to route the NIH RPPR to an Administrative Official (AO), follow these steps:

- ✗ Do not leave the default analyst

How do I find who my Signing Officials are at my institution? (requires Kerberos login)

NSF RPPR Submissions

Submit at Research.gov

- Required report components are indicated

Only PIs and co-PIs can create, edit and submit project reports.
