Applying for Federal Funding? Don't Forget the Reliance Agreement!

If you are applying for federal funding for a non-exempt, multi-site study and planning on UC Davis IRB being the reviewing IRB, please contact the reliance team at hs-irbreliance@ucdavis.edu as soon as possible, to set up your IRB submission in advance.

When planning for any funded study, keep in mind that the UC Davis IRB charges reliance fees for funded studies when acting as the single IRB (fee calculator). More information about reliance agreements can be found on our Single IRB and Reliances webpage.
